

Tips for Holiday Dinners Featured at Cooking Class

To provide menu ideas for holiday dinners, the Torrance Recreation Department has arranged for a special "Harvest Time Treats" cooking class which will be held in the Civic Auditorium, 1847 El Prado on Thursday, Nov. 17, from 1:30 until 3 p.m.

Mrs. Margie Ewen, home economist of Southern California Gas Co., will present the elaborate program which will include the following dishes:

Roast turkey with wild rice and bread stuffing;
Shish kebabs with Armenian Pilaf;
Special pumpkin pie with crunchy coconut and pecan topping;
Molded Harvest Salad;
Persimmon mallow, and

Blueberry griddle cakes.
To achieve her results, Mrs. Ewen will have the stage equipped with the latest model automatic gas ranges and a refrigerator. She will show how to prepare all foods for cooking, how to place them in the ranges and refrigerator, how to set temperature and time controls and how to garnish and serve each dish.

Those wishing to take advantage of this free school may call Marilyn Jensen, supervisor of girls and women's activities of the Torrance Recreation Dept.

Local merchants are providing door prizes which will be given during the cooking class.

COURT GIVES CARD PARTY

IT'S BAZAAR TIME... and the Sewing Circle of the Royal Neighbors of Torrance are busy with plans. Their annual bazaar will be held Tuesday, Nov. 15 at the Woman's club-house, 1422 Engracia, beginning at 1 p.m. Shown displaying a few of the many bazaar articles are, from left, Rosy Shepherd, Lillian Nelson, Cordie McDermott, Lois Davis and Della Moon. The public is invited.

Royal Neighbors Make Plans For Annual Bazaar Nov. 15

Sewing Club members of the Torrance Royal Neighbor Camp are busy making plans and much fancy work for the coming bazaar to be held in the Woman's Clubhouse on Engracia St., Tuesday, Nov. 15.

The president, Mrs. Betty McNeil, has announced that the bazaar will get under way at 1 p.m., and will continue throughout the afternoon and evening.

The Afghan made by Mrs. Della Moon will be given as a door prize.

Mrs. Lillian Nelson, chairman of the gift and gadget table, has announced that she has over 100 packages, both large and small, and contain many and varied articles, to be sold.

Mrs. Lois Davis has been busy on the fancy work and has wonderful display of Christmas gifts and many articles of apparel for women and children.

Mrs. Cordie White will have the "sweet table" and will sell various kinds of home made candies.

Mrs. Sophia Duncan is in charge of the food table for the drill team of the Royal Neighbor Camp and will welcome any article of food that members or friends care to donate.

This bazaar is an annual event, and the proceeds go to help keep up the home for the aged in Davenport, Ia.

In the evening, there will be a card party and the usual games of pinocle, canasta, bridge, five hundred and bunco will be played. Prizes will be awarded high scores and a door prize will be given. Mrs. Rosie Shepherd and her committee
